G. S. S. S.
Superintendent of Central Jail.

We are all interested in favor of the deceased. My brother, the first witness, has given evidence against me on account of enmity. I did not commit murder. On account of enmity in the village, I was charged with the offence after tying me and then pending for the Magistrate and the Police. The witnesses who gave their evidence are friends of my brother and deceased. The evidence of these witnesses is not to be believed.

As this case is brought unjustly against me on account of enmity, I humbly pray Your Excellency-in-Council to consider this case and

To

His Excellency,
The Governor-in-Council,
Fort Saint George.

The humble petition of Cawit no 1820, Chinna Palani
Sundera, sentenced to Trans. for life by the Sessions
Judge, Caimbatore and confined in the Caimbatore Central Jail.

I appealed to the High Court, Madras; the sentence passed on me was confirmed.

The conviction and sentence passed on me is against law and justice. The witnesses in this case are all interested in favor of the deceased. My brother the first witness, has given evidence against me on account of enmity. I did not commit murder.
