Judicial Department,
Madras.

Sir,

In Government Order No 806 dated 7th July 1892, the Government sanctioned the extension of the Towns Nuisance Act permanently to the Sivakasi union in Gatter taluk and appointed the then Sub Registrar of the place as a Special Magistrate for the trial of offences under sections 3 to 7 of the Act. This Sub Registrar having been transferred from Sivakasi, the nuisance cases have have to be taken up to the latter stationary Sub Magistrate 12 miles off. The Sub Divisional Magistrate brings to notice that the union is put to much inconvenience and expense thereby and recommends that the present Sub Registrar of the place, Karasiah Subbaramiah, be appointed as a Special Magistrate. I have the honor to support his recommendation and to request that Karasiah Subbaramiah be invested with 3^d class powers. It appears that he was a Special Magistrate in Paramakudi in Madura district for 2 years. The usual application is submitted through the Inspector General of Registration.

I have the honor to be,
 Sir
 Your most obedient servant
 District Magistrate

3. In my tours in the Tirunelveli and
District Magistrate

and Madurai districts, I found that there are strong factions in many of the Unions and that the sub-registrar special magistrates by the exercise of the petty powers with which they are invested become unpopular whenever they happen to punish an influential resident of the Union for breaches of the provisions of the Town Nuisances Act. In such cases petitions are constantly sent up to me complaining against the sub-registrars of some alleged irregularity or other in the conduct of their registration duties and these are in most cases found to be untrue. The officers are also sometimes insulted and annoyed in various ways. It seems therefore desirable that Divisional officers should be instructed to scrutinise the work done by sub-registrars as special Magistrates when they visit the Unions and if it is found to have been properly performed to do all that is necessary to support the authority of sub-registrars.
It is the institution of prosecutions for encroachments on public streets and thoroughfares that evoke the greatest hostility on the parts of the people in rural tracts and it is desirable that this work should be done by the superior officers of the Revenue Department.

That in the execution of the Town Nuisances Act, the Sivakasi Sub-registrar (P.T.O.)

Will be communicated to the D. Magistrate of Tinnevely who will be requested to enquire that in the execution of his Magisterial functions the Sivakasi Sub registration will be issued by ~~the~~ Magistrates.

19.11.95 is accorded all support by the Divisional Officer.

Para 2. seems unnecessary.

Most Dist. Officers would support their Subordinate Magistrates to the best of their ability. Personally if I may say so, I always found that the main difficulty was the want of experience & commonsense of the Sub Registrar Magistrates, & that caused all the trouble. Eg. the Trinipvanam Sub Registrar in Ramnad, whose powers were recently withdrawn.
It seems enough to send the D.M. of Trinipvan a request to see that the Sivakasi Sub Registrar is supported.

W. Rang
I think this would be quite enough
