office No. 671 dated 18 Dec.

Brigade Surgeon

Colonel. Hazlett has very kindly consented to act without prejudice to his other duties and has authorized me to say so —

I had every hope of returning to duty on the 19th instant; but my medical advisers prohibited my doing so, and suggested perfect rest for some time.

I called in Dr. Hazlett this morning and he quite agreed in this opinion —

I am prepared to forego either or both the allowances I draw —
