REVENUE DEPT.

To
The Right Honorable,
Governor in Council,

For the Honorable George,
Madras,
23 NOV 1895

The humble memorial of the undersigned in behalf of Sri Subramanyaswamyah Saidapet.

Most humbly sheweth:-

That your Lordships humble petitioners beg to submit that owing to the misunderstanding that existed among the people of Karanur & Saidapet, the Trustees of Subramanyaswamy temple unnecessarily stopped the usual Sashti Votchanam of Subramanya swamyar that should have been celebrated last month.

2. The Trustees after the misunderstanding submitted several petitions to the Collector and District Magistrate citing for a pass and for Police help for performing the festival, anticipating some disturbance by the people of Karanur.

3. The Collector & District Magistrate forwarded to the Deputy Magistrate Mr.
Shillanayagam Pillay, who in his turn sent to the Tahsildar Magistrate for enquiry. Though the inquiries on behalf of Subramanyaswamy disposed favorably, and though the inquiries of the other parties also partly disposed favorably in their behalf of Subramanyaswamy, yet the Tahsildar Magistrate for some unknown cause

REVENUE DEPT.

To The Right Honorable,
Governor in Council,

For the Honorable George,
Madras,
23 NOV 1895

The humble memorial of the undersigned in habit of Sree Subramanyaswamy at Saidapet.

Most humbly sheweth:-

to the misunderstanding that existed among the people of Karamel & Saidapet, the Trustees of Subramanyaswamy's temple unsuccessfully stopped the usual Sashti Vohanam of Subramanya-swamy that should have been celebrated last month.

2. The Trustees after the misunder-
standing submitted several petitions to the Collector and District Magistrate soliciting for a pass and for Police help for
some disturbance by the people of Karamel.

3. The Collector & District Magistrate
forwarded to the Deputy Magistrate Mr.
Shallanayagam Pillay, who in his turn sent to the Tahsildar Magistrate for
of Subramanyaswamy disposed favorably,
and though the inquiries of the other parties also partly disposed favorably in favor of Subramanyaswamy, yet the or less.

7. We therefore beg that your Lordship will be good enough to call for the records from the District Magistrate & also that of Hannay & Co. as they are in the Temple at Madras, that was passed some time or three years ago and issue orders at your Lordship's earliest convenience, so that at least the Karthick festival that is to take place on the 17th of the Karthikai Sankranti month, corresponding to 1st Dec 1875, may be observed.

We try to remain

Yours devotedly
J. M. McKim
