The Chief Secretary to the Govt. of Fort Saint George,
Madras.

The humble petition of Periakondall Abram Kali a slave prisoner under Police Surveillance, residing in Kusha, Vellore.

Most Respectfully sheweth:-

That Petitioner most submissively hugs to represent that since his release from the Central Jail Vellore, he has been overwhelmed with severe difficulties for want of food and raiment.

That his family consisting of one wife and 4 hopeless little children, on hearing the intelligence of his release, arrived in Vellore and are now living with him.

That the allowance granted for the support of the Petitioner himself is now spent for the maintenance of 6 souls and is barely sufficient for a space of 10 days.

That being unable to bear the pangs of starvation, Petitioner applied on the 25th of May last to the Dist. Magistrate of North Arcot to recommend him for an increase and he accordingly espoused the cause of the Petitioner but the Govt. to his misfortune in their Order dated 13-4-95 No 1769 declined to comply with his request.

That in August last he sent no pet. to Govt. but replied in the 19th Dec 20/11/95 in another petition which is still left undisposed.

Petitioner is neither allowed to travel nor he has any means of entering into any kind of trade.

That the British Govt. have been pleased to grant pension to the widows of a State Prisoners like the Petitioner. When such an indulgence has been extended to an individual of an equal rank, and privilege, why the claim of this poor prisoner, has been overlooked, he is at a loss to know.

That Petitioner has been reduced to distressed circumstances of unfor-seen misfortunes and his eldest daughter has been married and Petitioner has no means to celebrate her marriage.

Under these circumstances, Petitioner prays your honours will be good enough to reconsider over the matter and if the several statements contained herein be proved, then to accord sanction for an increase of pension. Petitioner was receiving 6 annas per diem when he was in the jail and subsequent to his release he was paid 8 annas per diem and the latter rate was continued for 52 days when the then joint Magistrate informed him that until further orders Petitioner would receive Rs 4 a month, since ^{nearly} 12 years have been elapsed no increase has been made. The present allowance is very scanty so he requests that the present allowance be increased to Rs 15 a month.

For which act of kindness,

Petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.

Kusba, Vellore.
