Deputy of a telegram dated 3rd Dec 1895 received from Gov. of India

Home Dept.

"Government of India had contemplated asking Secretary of State for India to sanction the appointment of a Judge temporarily to officiate as High Court of Judicature under same arrangements 1887.

Her Majesty having appointed Sir W. B. B. the cause
he done. Is it certain that Parker will retire that and so when

FOR ORDERS.

The only thing to be done at once is to enquire (D. O.) from Mr. Parker when he means to retire, telling him at the same time the reasons for making the enquiry. He told me privately that his inclination was to retire the first week of February.

The decipher of a cipher telegram, ^{from India} submitted.
The arrangement ^{of 1887} referred to in this appears to be that mentioned in para 7 of the despatch of the ^{Govt} India to the S. of S., in C.O. No. 2672 dated 24/11/87 (place marked with red tape) and alluded to also in letter to the Govt to India No. 2633 dated 19/11/87 (marked with white tape) & etc.
The correspondence ^{alluded to} referred to in para 7 of the ~~India~~ despatch of India referred to above has been put up and is probably now here. Apparently a Judge can be appointed only permanently by the Ruler and the only way in which a temporary Judge can be put in is by filling a permanent vacancy by the appointment of a temporary Judge ^{appt.}

As regards the Honble Mr Parker
I am sure in my private capacity that he has definitely decided to retire and to do so either in the last week in July or the first in March

Copy of a Confidential despatch to Mr Justice Parker
on 5th Dec: 95.

My dear Parker

The Govt of India
has telegraphed to Govt:
that it had contemplated asking the Secy of State to sanction the appl: of the 6th Judge temporarily to officiate in the vacancy caused by Best under the same arrangement
as was made in 1887.

The rapidity, however,
with which Davies' appl was made precluded
this being done and India now asks if it is certain that you will retire shortly and if so, when. Could you kindly oblige Govt. with infor--ation as to this? It will of course be treated if you so wish as a confiden-
-tial matter.

The telegram from India was a cipher one

so I presume that it does not wish its con-
-tents to be generally known. Hence my marking this "con-fidential".

Yrs sincerely
J.F.P.

ply of the Hon W. Parker to the Council made to him on Indian telegram submitted
 s. Parker has personally pointed out that a sixth judge must be a civilian and that whoever is put in temporarily in the vacancy which he will create may be any one, as by law two of the permanent judges must be civilians. The law on the subject is contained in the proviso to Section 2. 24 & 25 Victoria Chap 104.
