ORDER.

No. 2655-8/17th Dec/95

Note

Please see Rule 697 of the Jail Code. The convict's first appeal to Smt. was rejected in S.O.
10. July 94. No 1703.

Note

The prisoner has not petitioned the Local Smt. yet. What he now wants is not clear.
If he wishes to prefer a regular appeal against the decision, he must go up to the Priny Council according to the prescribed rules. If on the other hand, he wants to send a petition to Her Majesty praying for pardon, he can do so.
In either case the permission of the Local Smt. does not appear to be necessary.

Convict No 5481 A. Rajasam may be permitted to send a second petition to Smt. if the Supt. of Prisons considers that sufficient ground exist for such a concession.

2. The request of convict No 6345 Rajaswara aiy an is not understood. He may however be informed that the permission of Smt. is not necessary either to his appealing to the Priny Council against his conviction or to his memorializing the Secy. of State as regard his sentence.

This Court does not seem to have been invested with a power similar to that conferred on the Court of India by para XIII of the Memorial Rules. It is with holding a memorial addressed to Her Majesty in cases in which the memorialist has not previously petitioned the Local Court on the subject.

3. ~~Convict No 6511 Hanathi~~

~~Second case may be forwarded~~
There is no objection to convict No 6511 Hanathi Sundran petitioning the Court of India. The jail authorities will be authorized to prepare a petition for him at his dictation as a special case.

Note

The case of this prisoner was considered in S.O. of 20-12-94, No 3151. On the recommendation of the High Court, the sentence of transportation for life passed upon him was commuted by Court to one of 10 years R.I. He now requests permission to memorialize the Court of India. The question whether memorials to the Court of India should be transmitted in cases of this kind has been referred to that Court for orders in Govt. Dep't. Ltr. of 15. Oct. 95 No 2139, but in the meantime all petitions to that Court must presumably be forwarded. There is nothing in the Jail Code requiring or authorizing jail authorities to prepare petitions to the Court of India. But, as, in the present case, it is possible that that Court may take a view different from that taken by the Court as regards the sentence, the jail authorities may perhaps be allowed to prepare the convict's petition as a special case.

Note

The prisoner was convicted by the High Court in a jury case and as such is not entitled to have his petition prepared by the jail authorities - vide Revised rule 698 of the Jail Code approved in S.O. of 24. Sept. 95, No 1895 1988.

Note

This is a Burman convict, sentenced to transportation for life by the Sessions Judge of Mawlaik. Any appeal which he wishes to make regarding his sentence lies only to the C.C. in Burma and not to this Court.

4. Convict No 8699 Rayhana Rayana ^{can memorialize} ~~may petition~~ the Local Court, if he chooses. ~~Praying~~ as regards his sentence, but the Court is not prepared to allow the jail authorities to ^{draw up} ~~prepare~~ a petition for him.

5. Convict No 5901 Hyau Bet should be informed that any representations which he wishes to make in respect of his sentence should be addressed to the Chief Commr in Burma.

6/12/95
I certainly seems hard that such a person as illiterate he should practically be denied the right of appeal petition

11/12/95
I don't see that in it - He can get his friend to prepare a petition for him. That was, I presume, the course which was followed before the rule was (recently, I think) laid down that the Jail authorities were to prepare petitions, with the result that Govt was deluged with them -
