GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE Chief Secretary to Government,

Judicial Department.

SIR,

With reference to the Proceedings of Madras Government No: 2166, Judicial, dated the 24th October 1895, I have the honour to enquire, if it is the intention of Government that Surgeon Captain W. Molesworth should be considered as on special duty for 3 months under Article 98(a) of the Civil Service Regulations, and if so, what salary should be allowed to him during the period of his deputation.

That officer is now acting Additional Medical Officer, General Hospital, on a salary of Rs 427-7-1 per mensem in the arrangement consequent on the absence of Surgeon Captain A.B. Grant on furlough which will terminate on the 14th November 1895.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. Harrison

For orders.

There is apparently no objection to Surgeon Captain Moleworth being considered on special duty during the three months he learns jail work. He will be entitled during this period to a pay of Rs 335-12-2. Orders are solicited whether he should be granted any deputation allowance under Art. 98 (a) of the C.S.R. The deputation entails change of station.

W. M. Moleworth

I should give him Rs 100
