From

THE CHIEF SECRETARY,

To The Judicial Dept

The following extracts from the letter from the Secy.
General D 4 Febry/95, No

Financial Dept & the H.M. are forwarded to the Judicial Dept in view to immediate action being taken in the matter :-

Extract from the Secy.
Genl's letter.

"I am informed that
"from the scheme now before
"the Govt. of India it would
"be seen that the extra cost
"of the Railway Police scheme
"will be only Rs 14,000. In "that case the provision under
"20 Police would have to be "reduced by Rs 1,00,000. Is

"there any objection to the "proposed reduction being
"carried out?"

Extract from Finl. St-
Vote for Order D 6 instant.

"India has not replied
"to the telegram about the "partial Railway Police scheme
"despatched on the 14th January.
"It seems evident that unless "a very strong representation
"is made, in Judicial, pressing
"for the retention of the whole
"scheme, and this, by telegram,
"India will cut out the "provision."

"Submitted that the Home
"Dept be wired to, in the "Judicial Dept, to retain
"the full cost of the Railway
"Police Scheme."

Extract from H. Vis' notes.

"Yes."

follow shortly.
