Petition for pardon

[illegible]

Handwritten text in Malayalam script, likely a petition or official document. The text is dense and covers most of the page.

To
His Excellency the Right Honorable
the Governor in Council Fort St George

The humble Petition of Ponvick No 4982 Shep-
-pila Vittal Sheka-
-nan Nair, prisoner in Calcutta Case No.
689 of 94 on the file
of the Stationary
Magistrate Phera-
-kal

Most Respectfully Sheweth
That your Excel-lency's humble Petitioner was convicted of attempt to com-mit suicide (see 309 I.P.C.) and sentenced to (6) six months S.I. by the Stationary Ma-gistrate Pherakal and that the sentence on appeal was confirmed by the Acting Joint Magistrate of Ma-labar.

That your Peti-tioner is not guilty of the charge brought against him

That some of the convicts in this jail who are your Petitioner's bitter enemies joined together and a case was got up against him saying that he stole a piece of white drill from the Stores in the Jail

That this case was handed over to the Police - and that your humble was acquitted after his trial at the Sessions Court of North Malabar

That subsequently the convicts who are your Petitioners' enemies again got up a case saying that Petitioner stole some towels &c and the Superintendent on this occasion took up this case himself and sentenced your Petitioner who was innocent to re-ceive 20 stripes and to be separately confined for 3 months in the Place Prison as a Tail Punish-ment

That your humble Petitioner was very much grieved at being punished and that at the thought that your Petitioner was to be flogged before the other convicts who are your Petitioner's enemies he felt very much humiliated

That thinking of the shame and disgrace your Petitioner will have to undergo on the next day he was by the time of Lock Up frantic with sorrow and bordering on insanity and that your Petitioner since the Lock Up was not res-ponsible for his actions as he does not recollect anything that hap-pened at night

That next morning when he woke up he found that he was re-
-moved to another cell and felt his whole body numbed and painful and then Petitioner was told by others that he had tried to hang himself

Under the above circumstances your humble Petitioner most-respectfully begs that your Excellency in Council will be kindly pleased to reverse this sentence that was passed on your Petitioner who is innocent and who was not responsible for his actions and for which act of kindness and charity your Excel-lency's humble Peti-
-tioner shall as in duty bound

Ever Truly
