THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT.

SIR,

Enclosures.

In acknowledging the receipt of G.O. 24th Jan'y 1895 No 159 Judicial, I have the honour to state that the suit against the Superintendent, Central Jail, Salem, will be compromised in the manner approved by Government.

2. I should feel grateful to Government if it would see its way to reducing the fine to be imposed on the Tailor from Rs 120 to, say, Rs 80. This officer has already been punished by being passed over for promotion to the Second Grade, a punishment involving an immediate loss of Rs 15 per mensem. He has also to pay a deduction of Rs 25 per mensem from his salary towards the security required under Chapter Lxxiii of the Jail Code. The infliction of a fine of Rs 80 will, it will be seen, constitute a substantial penalty, and I should be glad if the Government would allow the balance of Rs 40 to be charged against the Departmental Budget.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

A. G. Cardew
Inspector-General of Jails.

That the man has to pay 25 Rupees a month towards his security has nothing to do with the case. This shows his faith of his punishment.
He has however suffered a departmental punishment a fact which may induce him to favourably consider the I.G.'s request
