Kulakota torture case

No 4/2

For order.

~~For order of the District Magistrate~~

It is to be understood that, when the I. of Police dismissed Krishna Sai Bai from the probationary Inspectorate, the Collector dismissed him from his post in the Sub Collector's office. It is submitted that he may be restored with retrospective effect to the latter post as not to break his service.

7 Feb
5/2/95.

This is the result of non observance of the rule (which generally requires) that persons who go to probationary appointments must after 3 months absence either return or resign.

Yrs. Sd/- 5/2/95
during the interval he was prepared as on leave without pay

11/2/95

In this case however, if he resigned his post, he would have forfeited his service as probationary Inspector within 3 months.

Ag DISTRICT MAGISTRATE,

To

THE Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department,
Fort Saint George

SIR,

With reference to para 4 of G.O. No 128 judicial dated the 19th instant, I have the honor to report that the then District Magistrate of Cuddapah called for an explanation from the Acting Tahsildar of Madanapally, and that the explanation on receipt was recorded. However, the Acting Tahsildar reverted soon after to his permanent appointment of stationary Sub Magistrate, and died in May 1894, without having been again entrusted with charge of a Taluq.

2. I take this opportunity of asking what the intention of Government is as to Krishna Swami Naidu. Probably Government was not aware that he was 3^d clerk on Rs 40. in the Subcollector's Office and that he was dismissed from this appointment. If the Government order had merely said that his probation was to cease, I should have had no doubt that he was restored to his appointment in the Revenue Department, but the order goes on to say that Government will not object to his re-employment in public service, which appears to mean that his dismissal from his then appoint-ment is to stand.

I have the honor to be
 Sir

Your most obedient servant

Ramachandran
 J. M. District Magistrate
