NOTIFICATION.

IN exercise of the power conferred by the Statute 33 Vict., Cap. 3, Section 6, and in continuation of the rules published in Notification No. 2159, dated the 2nd November 1892, the Governor-General in Council has been pleased to make the following rule, which has been sanctioned by the Secretary of State in Council with the concurrence of a majority of the members present:—

The Government of Madras may appoint any Subordinate Judge, being a member of the Provincial Civil Service and a Native of India of proved merit and ability, to be also an Assistant Sessions Judge.

By order,

J. P. HEWETT,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,

No. 104.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE GOVERNOR
GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

MY LORD,

Having considered in Council the Draft rule which accompanied your Government's letter No. 51, dated the 3rd ultimo, I have accorded my sanction to it with the concurrence of a majority of the members present.

2. The reasons which have induced Your Excellency's Government to propose this special rule for the Presidency of Madras are fully stated in the third paragraph of the letter under reply. They appear to me very cogent, but they would seem to apply to other provinces also, and not exclusively to Madras. I presume that your Government are desirous of trying the experiment in one province before proposing a rule of general application.

I have the honour to be,

MY LORD,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble Servant,

HENRY H. FOWLER.

Calcutta, the January 1895.

SIR,

WITH reference to the correspondence ending with your telegram No. 379, dated the 4th August last, I am directed to forward a copy of the papers noted in the margin, from which it will be seen that, under Statute 33 Vict., Cap. 3, Section 6, a rule has been issued by the Government of India, with the sanction of the Secretary of State in Council, authorising the Government of Madras to appoint any Subordinate Judge, being a member of the Provincial Civil Service and a Native of India of proved merit and ability, to be also an Assistant Sessions Judge. In view of the fact that the number of District and Sessions Judgeships thrown open to the Madras Provincial Service is four, the Governor General in Council considers that it should be sufficient to appoint not more than two Subordinate Judges to exercise the powers of Assistant Sessions Judges at any one time, and this view is expressed in paragraph 4 of the Despatch to the Secretary of State of 3rd October last. I am accordingly to ask that not more than two Subordinate Judges may be appointed at any one time to be Assistant Sessions Judges under the rule now sanctioned.

The Governor General in Council would be glad, when the rule has been in operation for two years, to learn the opinion of the Government of Madras as to how it has worked.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

J. P. HEWETT,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.
