ENCLOSURE. 1.

SUBJECT.

As to what temporary assistance she might have? The Secy. of Police & the D.M. of N. West have not yet replied to G.O. of 13 Decr. last. No. 3079, just. If H.H. decides to grant her help, it will be necessary to refer to the Accountant General on the subject. Probably to address the Secy.
of India, as the case does not seem to be provided for by the pension & gratuity rules.

Govt give her Rs 4 p. m. from the date of the disappearance of her husband, who, I am afraid, has almost certainly been made away with. If the A.G. makes any objection, ask India. In the meantime I suppose the woman can be given Rs 20 a month as an act of charity.

I don't think there can be any objection, as the case is peculiar: she is the widow of a poor servant who disappeared in the execution of duty: & the name of the Copy of letter, N^o. 54, dated 17th January 1895, from the Commissioner of Police, Madras, to the District Magistrate, Chingleput:-

In reply to your letter, N^o. $\frac{270}{48}$, dated 3rd Instant, I have the honour to inform you that Thoyarammal, wife of Constable Varadarajulu, N^o. 540 of the Chingleput district Police force, is at present living with her father, Leshachella Nayak, at N^o. 5, Ganganau street, Washermanpet, and is (with her child aged 3 years) entirely dependent on him for the means of living.

Leshachella Nayak is a cooly goldsmith earning from 4 to 8 annas per diem when able to work, but owing to age (56 years) and sickness he is not able to work steadily, in consequence of which he and his family (3 persons in addition to Thoyarammal and her child) have lately been in some distress. He does not possess any property.

Constable, Varadarajulu has two brothers brothers, one a cooly cultivator in the Kadurautakam taluk, the other a peon in the salt department at Seyur, but neither of them is in a position to assist Thoyarammal.

Varadarajulu has or had a third brother, but Thoyarammal does not know what has become of him.

I consider that Thoyarammal is in real and pressing need of pecuniary assistance.

To

Chief
THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, Judicial DEPARTMENT, Madras.

SIR,

I have the honour to reply to the latter part of para 2 of G. O. N^o. 3079, dated the 13th December 1894, calling for a report whether Thayarammal, wife of the missing constable N^o. 540, Varadarajulu Nayudus, is in real and pressing need of pecuniary assistance.

2. As the woman is residing in Washermanpet, Madras, I requested the Commissioner of City Police, to be good enough to institute the necessary enquiries. From his reply, N^o. 54, dated the 17th Instant (copy enclosed), it appears that the woman and her child aged 3 years are entirely dependent dependent on her old father, a cooly goldsmith not able to work steadily, who with his whole family have lately been in some distress, and that the brothers of Varadarajulu Nayudu are not in a position to assist her.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Ag. District Magistrate.
