Submitted for perusal; a routine order giving Jayaraja Rao Second-Class powers has already issued.
The Criminal Justice Report shows that in 1893 the <sup>original</sup> file of the Dist.
Magistrate was 9, but of the Head Assistant 25, & the Deputy Magistrate 31 cases. The Dist. Magistrate has forwarded 35 appeals, & the first class Magistrate 16 only. - These three Magistrates together had thus far less original & appellate work than falls to the lot of many a subdivisional Magistrate in the plains.
How many cases involved European British Subjects is not known; but there were only 80 such individual cases tried before Magistrates throughout the year, in the whole Presidency. I was in the bureau myself for three months as Head Assistant in 1890, & not a single case of the kind occurred to the best of my recollection.

This letter does not state the case correctly.
Mr. Clarke is a J. P. and his absence from the Commission is of brief duration.
Mr. Jones who is not mentioned is a J. P. & he will be here to almost directly. Mr. Jones finds it inconvenient for both to be absent together to be absent let him leave home or the other.
He works on the Magistrate's side heavy: 4 Officers - the latter included.
One finds time to go anywhere & see themselves they can find time to do a little extra work.

10/2/95

As a Magistrate of the 3<sup>d</sup> class

2 months + 4 days.

Yes. English language.

 & Deputy Collector & Magistrate tests.

To be implect with the ordinary and additional parents of a graduate of the 2nd class under Section 12 & 37 Criminal Procedure Code which permits the homicide has already occurred for 2 months as Deputy Magistrate of the Magistrate of the District.

Nilgiri Collector's Office, Coimbatore February 1895.
Dist Magistrate's Office

From J. D. Rees Esqrs C. I. C.
Collector & Dist. Magistrate, of Nilgiris.

The Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department.

Sir

Order,
With reference to Government 2nd Feb 1895
No 229, I beg to submit an application for 2nd class powers for the ag Dy Collector and an application for powers of Justice of Peace for the ag Head Assistant Magistrate for which I applied on the 2nd February by telegram.

2. As the Government observes, "the little appellate & 1st class original work ordinarily done by the Treasury Dy Collector can easily be taken up by the Dist. Magistrate." The inconvenience is felt solely by the public. At present the district district contains

1st class Magistrate and } The Collector, Justice of the Peace.

1st class Magistrate and } Mr. Clarke who is Sub Judge. } absent on duty in Cimbatore.

1st class Magistrate & District } Head assistant Magistrate Munsiff Gadalur. } who is just leaving for Wynad and is not a Justice of the Peace.

2nd Class Magistrate, } Absent on a Olatamund. } few days leave.

2nd Class Magistrate, } Proceeding on Comoor. } privilege leave & can only be replaced by a third Class Magistrate, no other being available.

2nd Class Magistrate, } On duty.
Gudalur.

3rd Class <sup>Sarighadar</sup> Magistrate } On duty.
Gudalur.

3rd class Special } On duty trying Magistrates, Olatamund } Munsiff & Police out Cases.

3. There is thus only one Magistrate in the District who can deal with European British Subjects until Mr. Young is Gazetted as a Justice of the Peace. The Collector has to do much of his 4 months in Camp to get through his inspections during the early months of the year before the two monsoons set in; and it is a hardship for Europeans accused, very likely of trifling assaults, to be brought up from the Wynad, only perhaps to find the Collector - District Magistrate in Camp or for Europeans on the plateau to be brought into Olatamund and to find no 1st class Magistrate Justice of the Peace on the spot, as a matter of course to deal with the cases in which they are concerned.

4. At the present moment only two 2nd class Magistrates are available available and this state of things recurs frequently owing the indifferent health kept by Native <sup>Subordinates</sup> Magistrates on the hills and their perpetual temporary absences for ceremonies and an account of deaths and serious illness among their relatives who live to a great extent at Coimbatore.

I therefore beg the favours of early orders on this letter. The bulk of the Magistral work is small but its distribution is a matter of importance owing to the fact that there should every day be a 1st class Magistrate and Justice of the Peace & also, if possible, a 1st class Magistrate present at the important European Station of Ootacamund, in order to be able to deal with 1st class Cases, in which Europeans & Natives respectively are concerned, during the very frequent absences from the station of the Collector.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant,
K. Sankarajodan
for District Magistrate.
