GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., dated 6th April 1894, No. 824, Judicial.

ORDER—dated 10th January 1895, No. 37, Judicial.

Several cases have recently occurred in which numbers of unnecessary enclosures have accompanied miscellaneous reports to Government. Attention was drawn to a similar practice in the Government order read above, which, however, only refers expressly to the case of records connected with charges against public servants. Heads of Departments will now be informed that the same principle should be applied to the case of all reports submitted to Government, whatever the nature.

NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

C.S. has once or twice referred to an order directing heads of departments not to send up masses of unnecessary vernacular papers, with their reports to Govt. The order in question is apparently No. 27 of April 1891 No 824, the original of which is put up. This is so worded as to limit the direction to the case of charges against public servants - & does not apply to other reports e.g. reports recommending the incarceration of lunatics &c. Should not the application be made general by a supplemental Circular.

My impression is that there was an order which arose out of either a lunatics case or one referred for appeal. I remember myself making a note pointing out that summonses, bail bonds and similar legal looking documents put up the old P.O. & regarding the form of official reports to Govt.

RO which were perfectly useless were being sent up. I suggested putting please; a copy of the document Rule is also put up. That would have been fine and they were my remarks were made on a case against a public servant. 25/4/84 nothing came of the former point out. by Circular that this S.O. should apply to all cases.
