Honorable Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to obtain and supply me with five copies of the Ceylon Stamp Ordinance No. 3 of 1890 and of any other rules in force in that colony relating to the fees payable on processes sent to the Courts in Ceylon for Service.

2. The rule of reciprocal free service of processes does not obtain between the Courts in British India and those in Ceylon and when, as not infrequently happens, processes have to be forwarded there for Service, it is not possible, in the absence of these rules, to ascertain the fees payable, and delay is occasioned.

I have the honor to be,
