APPOINTMENT OF PROBATIONERS AS ACTING ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENTS OF POLICE

Informing the Inspector-General of Police that the Government does not consider that there is anything in the agreement entered into with Messrs Longden, Clark and Sweeting which prevents Government from promoting those gentlemen and also giving them enhanced pay.

SIR,

Enclosures

With reference to your letter No 3484 dated 16 November 1894. I have the honor to ask you to be good enough to state if your objection refers to the acting appointments of Messrs Longden Clark and Smeeth or merely to their drawing allowances as acting Assistant Superintendents 4th grade.

2. These officers have not yet completed the prescribed Examinations.

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE,

TO

THE Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St George.

SIR,

Enclosures.

I have the honor to submit for the orders of Government the accompanying correspondence relative to the appointment of Messrs - Longden, Clark and Sweeting, Probationers Madras Police, as acting Assistant Superintendents.

2. The Accountant General is of opinion that these probationers are not entitled to act as Assistant Superintendents on the ground that they have not completed the prescribed tests required by his articles of agreement.

3. I do not think there can be any objection to their appointment as acting Assistant Superintendents.

FOR ORDERS.

On Mr. Thomson's complaining of the want of an Asst. Supt. at Negapatam Colonel Potions was asked if he could do any thing to remedy ^{matters} the want.
He suggested that, ^{on account of death of} Probationers Messrs Longden, Clark and Sweeting should be appointed to take charge of Assistant rangers, but ^{remarked} pointed out that they had not completed their tests, ^{and} ~~he~~ ^{so} recommended that, if Govt. insisted on their completing the tests before promotion, a special examination ~~might~~ ^{should} be held. Govt. considered that examination was under the circumstances unnecessary. The Probationers were accordingly gazetted Asst. Supts. The Actt. ^{contents} ~~points out~~ that these appointments are against article 8 of the agreement printed in G.O. 8, 4. 12. 93, No. 2544.
The provisions ^{do not} ~~of this article appear~~ ^{however appear} ^{to affect} ~~to be binding on~~ the Probationers to pass the tests and ^{it is a matter} ~~do not affect~~ the right of Govt. to promote them ^{before} ~~if it~~ thinks that they are fit for promotion ^{without} ~~without~~ passing their examinations.

the clause in the agreement was:—
"The party of the first part shall, on passing the necessary departmental examinations, be appointed an Assistant Superintendent of Police and shall thereupon become entitled to all the rights & privileges in respect of salary & promotion accorded to officers of the Police by the rules & regulations for the time being."

It will be seen that this merely entitles the probationers to claim confirmation & consequent increased salary &c on passing their examinations. It does not preclude Govt from appointing them to act as Asst. Supts, or even permitting them to draw acting allowances. Nor can I find anything in the rest of the agreement which prevents Govt from so doing. The Asst. General is right in saying that the probationers are not "entitled" to promotion — but they are not debarred from it, if Govt so direct.

Since writing the above, I have perused the whole correspondence relating to the appointment of the recruits selected in England. It has always been contemplated that they ^{should} rank immediately after the Probationers selected in India who have passed the qualifying examination, or pass it before the English recruits do. — Yet the form of agreement entered into with Messrs. Sweeting entitles them to confirmation immediately on passing this examination. They will thus apparently go over the heads of many of the probationers recruited in India. — They will not be permitted Appnts. of probationers as

as. asst. Supts. of Police.

the class in reality. Practically their pay of Rs 250 + Rs 300 is a personal rate to be drawn by English recruits, to be stated first Probationary Asst. Supt. & afterwards Asst. Supts -- or qualified Asst. Supt. -- They will however be promoted to the 4th grade Asst. Supt. ship on Rs 350 per mensem (vide p. 8 in GO 2718 May 1893 No 1037) after those of the locally recruited probationers who may have passed their departmental examination before them.

Order 10 Jan 1895 No 40

The Govt. does not consider that there is anything in the agreements entered into with Messrs. Douglas Clark & Co. which prevents Govt. from promoting these gentlemen and also giving them enhanced pay. The agreements merely preclude them from claiming promotion or enhanced pay, which is a different matter.
