Honorable Sir,

I am directed to forward the accompanying copy (to be returned) of Pearson's Index of Cases reported in the Indian Law Reports, 1876 to 1893, inclusive, 2nd Edition, and to request that Government will be pleased to purchase and supply 153 copies of the work for the use of District Judges, Subordinate Judges and District Munsifs. The price of the compilation is Rs. 11. It is a very useful book of reference, and has been asked for by some officers and the High Court considers it should be supplied to all Courts to which Every letter, whether printed or in manuscript, should be docketed and abstracted on the back; and the abstract should state clearly the purport of the letter and not merely its title subject.

Enclosures and statements also, whether sent with letters, or merely under cover, should be numbered, docketed and abstracted. The headings of statements should be written in full to prevent mistakes, (G. O., 9th April 1893, No. 239, Public.)

PAPER

The High Court wants Govt to supply 153 copies of the accompanying volume to Dist. Judges, Sub. Judges + Dist. Magistrate. The full distribution list is 168; + 153 is possibly a mistake for it.

The cost of 153 copies will be Rs.
1683; + the use of the volume will not be great.

It is true that Govt has purchased + supplied copies of the later volumes of Woodman's Digests, but that was because the earlier volumes were supplied by 'India' gates + would have been useless without the later ones.

It is against the policy of Govt to supply law books to highly paid officers, + it is submitted that this proposal should be rejected. Officers who want it can very well buy it.

As it is submitted + certainly has a book which Govt should supply. If Officers want the they can buy it
