From

G. W. Dance Esquire,
Ag. Collector of South Canara.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE COMMISSIONER OF

Land Revenue

Madras.

Sir,

In reply to Board's Proceedings dated 7th November 1894, with returned 6th Dec. I have the honor to state that the Moktessors of Aminio, or Mpamars as they are called in the other Amindivi island are not heads of villages, but of families, as will appear from the following extract of Mr. Robinson's letter to the collector of Canara, dated 16th July 1846 para 72, (Ex^{pt} Mins. of Consultation, 2nd April 1847, No 470 R.S.)
"72. In these small islands there are no Potails or heads of villages, but these places are supplied in each of the islands by the body of Karomars, the hereditary heads of families that formerly paid

2. In the Laccadive islands even the Amirs used to have no defined Magisterial powers of any sort when I was in the Malabar District, and did well enough without them. I do not know whether they have been given any since. The authority which they and the Mokkessons exercise is indefinite and is only limited by the extent of their personal influence. I think their authority is likely to be lessened rather than increased by bestowing on them the very restricted powers of a village magistrate.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant

P. D. K. M. A. Angayar
For Dy. Collector.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following Proceedings of

The Board of Revenue, Land Revenue, dated 29th January 1895, No. 379 also on letter from the Collector of South
Canara, dated 18th December 1894, No. 4317.

Resolution.

Submitted to Government with reference to its order No. 4179 also dated 31st October 1894.

2. In the circumstances reported by the Collector, the Board considers that the proposal to appoint one of the ellockitessors or Mopamars in each of the Amindivi islands except Kodarnat as Village Magistrate may be dropped.

Order thereon, 7th February 1895, No. 570.

Transferred to the Judicial Department, with an expression of concurrence in para 2 of the Board's Proceedings read above.
