Rules 701 and 704.

Deputy
Superintendent of Prison Jail, is a vast difference between the statements of these witnesses, without noticing which, the Sessions Judge has connected ^{the petitioners,} me acquitting the rest.

Though the Sessions Judge here recorded in his Judgment that the Statements of the 1. 2. 4. & 6. witnesses are not worth to be believed, yet the verdict of the Jurors was "guilty." and the Sessions Judge agreed with their opinion.

On perusing the records, Connected in this case, His Excellency the Governor in Council will himself find that the evidence given by these witnesses is not worth to show belief, and the petitioners prays that he may be granted the Benefit of doubt.

The petitioners therefore prays that the Governor in Council may be pleased to send for for all the records Connected in the case, and after perusing the same, he may be set at liberty.
