SUBJECT.

Praying for favourable orders on his former petition.

Order 7 March/95 No 504

The petn will be transferred to the S.M. of Godavari, in continuation of No. 575 July 94
No. 1666, full, this & the petn informed accordingly.

To The S.M. Godavari. G.O. with
Pat. G.O.

The petn states as follows:-
On 16/6/94 the petn submitted a petition to Govt. complaining of the wrongs done to himself and certain others by Venkata Simha dri Jayapati Raja Bahadar & Co Zamindar, residing in Tuni and praying for remedy. Govt. in its order No. 1666 & 5th July 1894 referred it to the Collr. The Collr. referred the matter to the Head Quarters Deputy Magistrate.
That officer served a notice to the petn who thereupon presented a petition in his office complaining of the wrongs done by the Zamindar to himself & some others and drawing also upon the probable wrong which may be done in future in this petition which was presented on the 22nd August 94

The peti requested the Magistrate to hold his court at Juni and enquire the matter there. Since the records proving the peti's complaints may be obtained there. Some time afterwards Mr. Venkatahama Raja of Juni wrote a Report regarding the character of the Zamindar. The Deputy Magistrate told the peti that he was aware of the Zamindar's conduct from the many complaints and appeals he received against him, and that he would therefore report to the Collector on the matter. The peti is not aware whether the Dy Magistrate sent his report to the Collr and the Collr sent a report to the Govt. This much he is aware of, that Govt. has not as yet issued any final orders on his former petition. Subsequent to the date of the above petition the Zamindar in question brought unjust Civil Suits against the peti and blocked the path which leads to his Inam lands thus preventing any cultivation. The peti has been thus brought to much loss & trouble. Under these circumstances the peti prays that orders may be issued to the Collr to furnish a report of the wrongs done by the Zamindar to the peti & others, and of the general conduct of the Zamindar, that Govt. may peruse his report and issue proper orders forbidding any more oppression on the part of the Zamindar. The peti prays in conclusion that he may receive an intimation after his request has been complied with.
