The Prisoner was identified during the robbery and stolen property was found in his possession. The Prisoner denies the charge. The Jury found the Prisoner guilty and he was sentenced to be transported for life. | The prisoner was a resident of Pandravadu village and was convicted of dacoity before the Federal Code came into operation, for which he was sentenced by the late Circuit Court of Chittoor 10-12 years ago. In prison when he was released at the expiry of that sentence in the year 1874 he is said to have made robbery his livelihood and was the terror of the villages of this Division and of those adjoining. From any amicable Division - He is said to have been the leader of a gang of robbers and his present life seems to have been one of robberies and dacoities committed in this Division and in the adjacent Division of some adjoining Districts. | See page 2 of Jail.                      |
