Honorable Sir,

A copyist of the District
Munsif's Court of Narasapur, named Y. Yeganna, was dis-
- missed by the District Judge of Godavari on 2nd November 1893. On appeal to the High Court, the order of dismissal was set aside and the copyist rejoined his employment on 3rd August 1894.

Every letter, whether printed or in manuscript, should be docketed and abstracted on the back ; and the abstract should state clearly the purport of the letter and not merely its title subject.

Enclosures and statements also, whether sent with letters, or merely under cover, should be numbered, docketed and abstracted.
The headings of statements should be written in full to prevent mistakes, (G. O., 8th April 1893, No. 239, Public.)

2. He then applied that, under Article 215(b) of the Civil Service Regulations, arrears of pay should be granted to him. The High Court has ascertained from the Accountant General that that provision of the Civil Service Regulations applies to Copyists, and the case is one in which arrears should be paid as it was held that the District Judge's order of dismissal was wholly unjustifiable.

3. Regarding the amount that should be paid, the High Court has consulted the District Judge who reports that the average monthly earnings of a Copyist of the Narsapur District Munsif's Court amount to Rs. $15\frac{1}{2}$, that is, Rs. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in in excess of the guaranteed minimum income of Rs. 10 monthly, and recommends that arrears at the rate of Rs. 15 per ~~month~~ month should be allowed or Rs. 135 in all.

4. The High Court approves this recommendation and I am accordingly directed to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council may be pleased to accord sanction for the disbursement of the said sum.

I have the honor to be,
Honorable Sir,
Your most obedient servant

in as much as the pay of the permanent establishments of copyists is passed in accordance with the scale sanctioned by Government, and the note under Article 215(a) refers to officers in temporary employ also.
