The humble petition of prisoner No 3171 Dhikonda Subbaya now under sentence of death at the Central Jail, Rajahmundry.

I beg to state that I am quite innocent. My wife was really killed by Boudla Varanna. I have neither friends nor relations to take up my cause, notwithstanding the great injustice that was done to me by the Police and other authorities. The village Munsiff who is a near relative of the real murderer, did his best, with the aid of the Police and others, to bring home the charge to me, in order to save his rich kinsman. I have nothing more to say but beg your Majesty's mercy towards me. The whole case was proved against me, by false evidence, and my statements were not considered worthy of credit, as they were not corroborated. The Assessors said I was not guilty but I was nevertheless condemned.
