PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper:—

From the Chairman, Municipal Council, Guntur, dated 26th November 1894 N^o 326.

In obedience to the remarks embodied in G.O. N^o 1177 M dated 29th August 1894 calling upon me to explain why the late purveyor & writer was not prosecuted for defalcation he committed, I have the honor to state that I placed the whole matter before the Council after finding out the exact price of the diet articles alleged to have been misappropriated, but the Council thought it sufficient to recoup the money from the purveyor and left the question of his further retention to the Asst. Civil Surgeon, who, on the strength of the Council's resolution, reinstated him, but I protested against it and the Council after all upheld my protest.

2. Considering the heavy fine imposed by me and the circumstances of the case it was thought unnecessary to prosecute the man.

3. The duties of purveyors & writers were combined in one man.

4. Copies of the following papers that are connected with the purveyors and writer's frauds are herewith submitted for the perusal of the Govt.

Order. 19th December 1894 N^o 1992 Mmis.

The Government considers that the purveyor and writer has been dealt with by the Municipal Council in a far too lenient manner. He appears to have been guilty of a series of frauds upon the Council extending over several months. The District Magistrate of Kistna will be requested in the Judicial Department to instruct the local Public Prosecutor to examine the case against him and to prosecute him under the Indian Penal Code before the Joint Magistrate, should the evidence available appear to be sufficient to enable a conviction to be obtained.

2. The Surgeon General will be requested to obtain from the acting Civil Surgeon, an explanation of the circumstances under which he countersigned (apparently for several months) accounts kept by the purveyors in which systematic over charges were made, and to submit it to Government with his remarks upon the case.

3. The Chairman of the Council appears to have conducted the enquiry into this matter with very commendable thoroughness.
