To

His Excellency the Right Honorable The Governor General of India in Council

The humble petition of Ennet to Suss Patriardi
Vankatagga

Humbly sheweth:—

1. That your petitioner was sentenced to death by the Sessions Judge, Cuddalore, in case No 2 of 1895 and on appealing to the High Court of Judicature at Madras and to the Madras Government the sentence was confirmed.
2. That your petitioner has no connection what ever with the deceased Narammah, why should he keep Narammah when he had his wife and children. The deceased Narammah was a woman of very bad character. She had in keeping one Vankaraddi the brother-in-law of the village Magistrate, another his son Vant Vadda Karigade and another Vadda Ellagade. They disagreed with each other through hatred your petitioner does not know which of the above murdered Narammah, when the murder had taken place your petitioner was in his field, sowing, but he had to admit at first the committing of the offence being unable to bear the afflictions caused by the Police, when your petitioner was not in his senses.

Enclosure No 2 of letter No 157 dated 13 March 1895

that your petitioner made no confession either before the sessions judge or in his appeal to the High Court. He is a poor man the village Magistrate being a rich and influential man bribing the police imposed this case on him to ruin him.

4. That your petitioner is a helpless man there was frudge between himself and the raddies for getting their services as they did not pay his wages properly. besides his defence witnesses were obstructed by them in giving evidence before the sessions court.

5. That your petitioner is quite innocent in this case and he therefore craves His Excellency the Governor General of India in Council to have mercy on him and relieve him from the sentence of death.
