CHIEF SECRETARY
 GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS
 12 MAR. 1895

Points out that the alteration made by Government in Rule 1 of the revised rules for the grant of Good Conduct allowances to Police Constables by adding the words "within one year" is more than a verbal alteration.

Submitted to U.S. for orders - along with the other papers on the subject of these rules now with U.S.

C.S.

The Y.G. is quite right; the full force of the alteration was not perceived at the time. The Y.G.'s rule was

"The accumulation of two <sup>black</sup> marks, punishment by fine more than once within a year" and I was thought that he was "within a year" to qualify the whole clause, hence the alteration in the Port Order. This mistake would not have been made had the black mark rule been referred to; but the reference did not put the up to being unfamiliar with them I did not see the force of my alteration. The sense of Mr. Karamick's rule is that already approved by Govt. so there appears no need to trouble H.H. with the paper. The following order is suggested.

Approved 21/3/95.

22-3-95
 18602
 The revised clause 1 of Police Order to 238 will accordingly be amended by the insertion of the words "within one year" immediately after the word "accumulation". As the Y.G. points out, the black mark rules render the destruction of these words meaningless. 25 MAR 95

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE,

Chief Secretary

SIR,

Enclosures.

With reference to G.O. dated 2nd February 1895, No. 228, on Good Conduct allowances to Police Constables, I have the honor to point out that the alteration made by Government in Rule X is by adding the words "within one year" is more than a verbal alteration. As the rule stood as drafted by me it ran "the accumulation of two black marks" - Now it is ordered that the two black marks must be accumulated within one year. Under the black mark rules, 3 months good service cancels a black mark, so it is really impossible to accumulate two black marks within one year. A man, for instance gets one black mark and then behaves well for three months he will at once clear himself of that mark and if he again misbehaves he will get another black mark but that will be only one. He may accumulate two in six months, but not two within a year; he will within the year either get more than two or clear off what he has got already.

As I drafted the rule as soon as any body gets two black marks he will lose one good conduct stripe. This can easily be worked, but I respectfully beg to represent that I cannot understand how the order as amended by Government can be worked.

Two black marks cannot be accumulated in a year because three months service without any black marks wipes off one of those already given.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedt. Servt.,
