The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras
The Petition of G. Ramalingam Iyer
Retired Munsif
Chidambaram.

Showeth.

Yours petitioner's petition dated 6th November 1894 contained statements of facts and circumstances in detail, which were urged upon the attention of Government for its benign consideration and orders.

The order of Government dated 14th January 1895 No. 330 disposes of the above mentioned petition unfavourably to the petitioner on the report of the High Court therein mentioned.

The order of Government above-mentioned does not show how the facts & circumstances set out in the petition were disposed of by it or by the High Court.
He is left quite in the dark and in the same condition in which he was when he presented the last petition, considering himself aggrieved by the former order of Government. He considered himself so aggrieved because he did his duty in good faith and with due diligence as a judicial officer.

officer and because he was exempted from any infliction under those circumstances according to provisions of act VIII of 1850, but he was ordered to pay Rs 10 for a judicial act.

Act VIII of 1850 protects the petitioner from being sued for acts done in the discharge of his duty. If the courts are not empowered to pass a decree against your petitioner for a judicial act, the Government may not be ready to defeat that protection by its executive orders, without proper grounds. Your petitioner simply seeks for the favour of an examination of those grounds, or for a reconsideration of his petition for relief if proper grounds do not exist.

Your petitioner prays that he may be given an opportunity of knowing how the facts and circumstances adduced in his petition in support of his prayer were disposed of by Government or to take into consideration those circumstances and others, which may possibly be found on perusal of the records of the Sait in which the Government had to pass orders directing the petitioner to pay the sum, by ordering those records being shown to him as requested in his last petition.

Your petitioner begs to remain
