Remise No. 267. The Dist. Magistrate 7.2.95 asks that the petroleum act may by notice be extended to those portions of the towns of Badagara + Ponnani which are outside the port limits of those places - to which limits the act already applies and Po. 919 J. 27.12.5.91. Under s. 10 of the act the possession of quantities of petroleum not exceeding 500 gallons is always free from restriction; the Dist. Magistrate reports that there are 2 merchants in Badagara & 3 in Ponnani who ordinarily keep quantities in excess of this amount. They keep from 3000 to 20,000 gallons each & it seems desirable to apply the act to their cases. But after this date, they may have moved to the town limits & be free from restriction once more. It is very possible that they have already migrated from port limits to the same case.

22/3/95

I think the act should be applied
