CURRENT NO. 1077 Timmelly District Magistrate's Office.
Dated 28 February 1875.

From

A. W. B. Higgins Esquire Sg. District Magistrate, Timmelly.

To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department,
Fort St. George.

Sir,

Rule 19-A of the rules framed under the Arms Act (XI of 1878) - vide page 17 of the new Edition - states that "when a license granted in accordance with these rules is lost or accidentally destroyed, a duplicate may be granted to the licensee on payment of the same fee as he paid on the original license if not in excess of one rupee, and in any other case on payment of a fee of one rupee". This rule apparently does not cover cases in which licenses are produced for renewal which have become too dirty or torn to admit of any further entries being made or cases in which owners of guns put in applications for renewal in a new year stating that the licenses granted to them for the previous year have been lost. I have the honor to enquire whether in the two cases referred to above an extra fee of 4 annas is to be levied, or whether I may levy a fee of 10 annas for the cost of paper and printing of the new license.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
A. W. B. Higgins
Sg. District M.

Enc.

Submitting for orders, whether an extra fee of 4 annas is to be levied, or whether he may levy a fee of, say, one anna for the cost of paper
and printing of the new license, in cases in which the licenses produced for renewal are dirty or torn to admit of entries, or in cases in which the licenses granted for the previous year are lost.

Licenses in forms II, VII + VIII last for 10 years. - The rules do not appear to authorize the levy of fees in case A. + there is nothing to prevent the Dist. Magistrate attaching a slip to the old license of sixty a fall up. - Case B seems to be full under the rules.

16-2-95
He above seems to be correct. 1/2
22/3/95

In case A I should issue a new license free. In case B the statute that the license has been lost may be merely an excuse to get another license for nothing. I should therefore charge as provided in the rules.

23/3/95
order of 28-3-95 No 654

In the first of the two cases put by the Dist. Magistrate a new license may be issued free of cost; in the second case, the usual charge contemplated by the rules should be levied
