No. 1146

From

Surgeon General

Dated 6-3-1895.

FOR ORDERS.

During the recent outbreak of cholera at the Lunatic Asylum the Surgeon General sent an additional hospital assistant there as a temporary arrangement. This man drew the asylum allowance of $15 per month sanctioned in G.O. 129. The accountant General 10-1-88.

Objects to this allowance on the ground that the Hosp. Asst. was only "doing duty" and not filling "one of the sanctioned appointments." The Surgeon General however is of opinion that he "should be considered" to have held a sanctioned temporary appointment and as such "should draw the allowance".

2. It is submitted that the accountant general is in the right. The correspondence in G.O. 27 Oct. 1884, No. 2728 just shows that the allowance was recommended rather with a view "to encourage good & trustworthy officials by liberal pay" to hold asylum appointments &

remain in them" The reference to the Acct^l General in the same order shows that Govt only contemplated recommending the allowance
to the sanctioned staff.

I agree with the U.S. This seems distinctly a case in which no allowance should be granted
