For orders.

The Elaya Raja asks for copies of G.O. of 2 February 1895 No 224 & of all the correspondence on the subject. The G.O. was sent on the Editor's table & may be given; - it summarizes the previous correspondence & the Raja probably wants the actual reports in order to sue or prosecute the writers for defamation, or else to get the Govt. of India to cancel the G.O. would it not be well to force him to show his hand by saying

"The Dist. Magt. may furnish the Elaya Raja with a copy of G.O. of 2 February 1895 No 224 & of all the correspondence which he desires to have any further extracts he should be directed to address Dist. Magt. for what purpose he requires them"
