His Excellency the Right Honorable The Governor General of India in Council

The humble petition of Convent No 8489 Woodde Sam
Kari Peddappodu alias Venkatigadu

Humbly sheweth:-

1. That your petitioner was sentenced to death by the Sessions Judge, Cuddapah, in case No 9 of 1895 and on appealing to the High Court of Judicature at Madras and the Madras Government, the sentence was confirmed.

2. That there was no enmity existing between your petitioner and the deceased Bathula Venkatigadu.
Two years ago a quarrel took place between the deca sed and Puppukolla Gururadu by beating each other with shoes, this was the cause of enmity between them.

3. There was an ill feeling between your petitioner and Kamba Krishna Rao who gave evidence against your petitioner for the last 10 years regarding lands.
One Lingala Raji Reddi who also gave evidence against your petitioner was keeping your petitioner's wife for about 2 years your petitioner seeing them both together speaking, abused them two or three times. By the influence of Lingala Raji Reddi your petitioner's wife ran away to her mother's house this was the cause of bad feeling between your petitioner and Lingala Raji Reddi. The above said Kamba Krishna Rao and Lingala Raji Reddi conspired to cause this offence through

Enclosure No 2 of Letter No 179 dated 30th March 1895 through Vapputhollu Gurumudi who as stated in the above was an enemy to the deceased. Vapputhollu Gurumudi was the ryot of the lands of K. Krishnamoorthy and frequenting the house of Lingala Nagaraj for building his house, as he was in friendly terms with these persons instigated him to cause this offence and produced false witnesses against your petitioners by tutoring the youngsters Elli and Ellugadu who gave evidence against your petitioners who has been innocently condemned to death for the crime committed by another.

4. Trusting that your Excellency the Governor General of India in Council will be pleased to commute the sentence passed on your petitioners and spare his life.
