attention to the orders of the Government of India contained in para 2 of their letter in the Department of Finance and Commerce, No 4764, dated the 6th October 1890, addressed to the Government of the North Western Provinces and Oudh (a copy of which was presumably communicated to the Government of Madras) which require that an application for copies of the Indian Law Reports of other Governments should be supported by the order of the Government under whom the officer making the application is serving.

FOR ORDERS.

The action of the Hon. Munshi of Pondalor, in applying direct to the Sup^t Gov^t Central Press, ^{Bombay} for a copy of the missing numbers of the I. L. Reports Po. series for Jan'y. 94 seems to be irregular.

As about?

The Copies of the I. L. R. all series are distributed by the Sup^t of the Press ^{at Madras}, the proper ^{for the Ministry} ^{house} course, to be, therefore, to address ^{to} the Sup^t at Madras.

G.O. 1817 of 24.7.94, has delegated the power, to the Sup^t, of re-issuing all missing numbers without reference to Gov^t.

Please see para. 2 of the G. O. letter referred to by the Bombay Gov^t.
[under cover of G.O. 1847 of 20.10.94] it will be seen from it, that ~~the~~ ~~the~~ ~~re-issue~~ in cases where re-issue of a missing number is necessary, the local Govt. Shd. issue orders to its own press, which will pass on its orders to the foreign press:

It ~~was~~ is usual whenever a Supdt. receives such applications to point out to the Applicant's that they should go to their own Supdt. or local Govt. In the present case the Supdt. of the Bombay press should have adopted this course instead of troubling two Govts. ~~unnecessarily~~

To avoid such irregularities in future it wd. be better to issue a Circular to all officers who receive copies of the S. L. R. of all series, to apply to local Govt.
Whenever the re-issue of a missing number is necessary & on no account to trouble other Administrations:

The letter of the B'way Govt.
may be acknowledged & the issue of such order.

The copy of the S. L. R. for Tanjore received from Bombay may be sent to the Supdt. of the press for the B'way Govt. for signature similar difficulties, I fancy,
