Name. Madurappa Devan. No 4448
Age ---- 38.
Weight on admission into jail --- 104
Health on admission into jail. Good.
Sentence. Two years.
Offence. Robbery.
Date of admission into Hospital 19th July 1894.

This patient was admitted into Hospital on the 19th July 1894 - a week after his transfer to Trichinopoly from Palamcottah, with Guinea Worm of right knee joint. The joint was greatly inflamed - after a few days the worm broke and abscesses formed above and below the joint. These were opened, but from deep seated irritation produced by the presence of several Guinea worms in the course of the thigh and calf, pus burrowed between the muscular planes - and severe constitutional disturbances ensued.
Symptoms of Septicæmia occurred, and the patient lay for a considerable time in a low typhoid condition. Meanwhile the knee joint, which had to be freely and repeatedly incised became disorganised. The strickest

strictest antiseptic precautions were adopted and by constant and careful nursing and nourishment the patient gradually recovered. At present two sinuses remain. The right lower extremity is greatly atrophied, the knee joint ankylosed and flexed, and the patient is practically bed-ridden. He has been continuously in Hospital for 7 months and 27 days, and has lost 30 lbs in weight out of an original weight of 104 lbs.
