It is valid only for the period and the route named therein.
It becomes invalid if bulk is broken, or the consignment stopped at any place on the journey.
It is given subject to the provisions of the "Indian Arms Act, 1878," and of the rules framed thereunder.
The contents of each package covered by this license shall be described in legible characters on the outside of such package.
The license must be delivered to the Railway authorities or to the frontier District Magistrate, or other officer empowered by him to receive export licenses on his behalf as provided in rules 7 and 10. In the case of consignments crossing the frontier by road or river, the articles must be made available for exhibition to the frontier Magistrate or other principal officer within six days of their reaching the frontier district, and before they leave British Territory.— Notification dated 25th November 1881, No. 1893, and G.O., dated 9th December 1881, No. 2532.
