OFFICE OF SURGEON-GENERAL

WITH GOVT. OF MADRAS.

Sir

I have the honor to report the case of one Narsigadu* for the orders of Government under clause 2 of Section 466 Criminal Procedure Code.

*Prisoner in Sessions case No 54 of 1892.

2 The defendant Narsigadu was committed by the Chandragiri Stationary Magistrate on a charge of attempting to murder two men with a bill-hook and causing hurt in the course of that attempt (Section 307 I.P.C.). The defendant's pleader having put in a petition stating that defendant was insane and unable to give instructions for his defence, the defendant was placed under the observation of the District Surgeon.

3 The District Surgeon having given a certificate that defendant was insane, the question of his incapacity to make a defence owing to unsoundness of mind was tried under section 465, Criminal Procedure Code, and the District Surgeon and two witnesses were examined.

4 From this evidence and the demeanour of the defendant the Court agreeing with the assessors has found that the defendant Narsigadu is insane and incapable of making any defence.

5 The trial therefore stands postponed until the defendant is capable of making a defence and the defendant has been sent to the Vellore Central Jail pending the orders of Government under Section 466 Criminal Procedure Code.

6 According to the evidence, the defendant becomes violent if teased or provoked. The evidence recorded by the Sub Magistrate is to the effect that the defendant chased four men of whose conduct he thought he had reason to complain with a bill-hook and catching one of them struck at him and wounded him. The bill-hook was taken from him and the man rescued.

7 The charge is not bailable and if it were, I do not think that it would be safe to hand over defendant to his relatives as they have no real means of preventing him from doing an injury to others except by cruel confinement.

8 I recommend therefore that defendant be sent for treatment to the Lunatic Asylum at Madras and that I be authorised under

Lett Circ 1002/95

Section 466 Criminal Procedure Code to give effect to such order.
