My dear Rice

I suppose you or H.L. have rec'd a duplicate of the enclosed.

What do you do with these telegraphic petitions?
Take no notice of them or what?

Unless there is a rule to take no notice of such petitions, I should say it is as well to ask for

My dear Lady.

I had a telegram last night of exactly the same tenor as that which you sent me so that Blair who sent it on to me. I am writing to Con. D.D. to ask what it means. I should say from the fact that as Mr. Ch. Parker is the spokesman and that the telegram is a very florid one that Con. is very probably in the Note.

Perhaps para. II(7) may be inserted.
The disputes are yet pending in law courts.

MR 18-4-95 This is surely a matter to be left to the discretion of the Comm.
of Police. Moreover the festival is said to have commenced on the 10th April & from last year's license appears to last only for 10 days; it will thus in all probability be over by the 20th.

The humble petition of V. Raghava Chariar, Dharma-Karthar of the Parthasarathy Swami Temple, Triplicane, Madras:

Respectfully sheweth:-

1. That the petitioner presented the petition herein enclosed to the Commissioner of Police, Madras, and requested that a licence be issued as usual for the performance of the festival known as Brahma Utsavam in the said temple.
2. That the Commissioner has refused to issue the usual licence similar to the one herein enclosed, and insists for the first time this year, on an application signed by the petitioners, and two others, whose right to the Dharma-Karthaship is in question, being presented to him, as will be seen from his endorsement.

3. That your petitioner's Counsel represented to the Commissioner that the festival is a great and important one, and that if the licence were withheld the usual festival would be stopped; but it is apparent that he had received prejudicial information, for he declared as soon as the matter was mentioned to him and before the petition was read to him that he had made up his mind not to grant a licence unless an application was signed as well by the other two persons; and he actually suggested that your petitioner should go to them to get their signature to the petition.

4. Your petitioner submits that the Commissioner is ~~the~~ not justified in refusing to grant the usual licence, and his order that an application should be signed by the three Darmahastis, is under the circumstances, unwarranted; and causes considerable disappointment to the public at large, by putting a stop to a festival of very great importance.

Your Excellency's petitioner therefore humbly prays that

Your Excellency in Council will be pleased to direct that the usual licence be issued by the Commission that the services and processions of the temple be allowed to be carried on according to manool and that the order be Communicated to the Commissioners by wire.

In which act of kindness and charity, your petitioners shall as in duty bound, ever pray.

FOR ORDERS.

The current explains the telegrams which were ~~passed~~ by me this morning from the Hon. Mr. Blair and the Hon. Sec. to the Governor.

I stated in my reply that I knew nothing of the matter. The petition passed through my hand on the 15th during the holidays and there being nothing in the docket to attract my attention I passed it into the Office without looking at it.

The license last year was issued in the names of all three pharmacutists who seem to have since quitted. One man ^{now} avowed to himself that entire control of matter and Col Cox appears to have been perfectly right in refusing to attend to any application not signed by all the pharmacutists. It is submitted that the Secy on the back of the current may issue
