Dated Bangalore, 14th March 1895.

Sir,

I have the honour to reply to your letter No. 4281 J, dated the 14th December 1894, and subsequent reminders regarding a life-convict at the Andamans named Rungah alias Motah, whose release has been recommended to the Government of India by the Superintendent of Port Blair.

2. The convict in question, according to the reports just received, neither belonged to a professional gang nor was he a dacoit by birth. His relatives who are village officials and hold lands, are able and willing to support him, if released.

3. In these circumstances, I am of opinion that convict Rungah alias Motah may safely be set free in the Tumkur District and delivered over to his relatives through the District Magistrate of that District.

4. The roll received with your first letter

No. 695 J d. 23rd
Feb. 1895.

Letter cited above is herewith returned.
