GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Dear Sir -

The enclosed came this morning from Stevenson. I send it on for the information of Government. I intend leaving here on Sunday next for Trincomalee to consult with the Capt. & Mr. May with regard to future action. I wired to Bagshawe as soon as I got Stevenson's first telegram to go down at once and I suppose he is there.

I do not suppose there is any danger of any further disturbance in the immediate future and in Kensington we have a man experienced in this sort of thing - It may be special precautions will be necessary & about his & other matters & we see Higgins and the Police Officials.

I am yours
