Dated 18th January 1895

Sir,

Under Section 466 C.P.C. I have the honor to report the following case for the orders of Government

The Town Sub Magistrate Behampur has sent one Lokkoja Murtingayam to this court for enhanced punishment under Section

349 C.P.C.

2. The prisoner was accused of having stolen a cloth or wrap belonging to the 1st P.W. and used for a covering to his palanquin. The ~~the~~ prisoner tore it in two. It was discovered in his possession and was identified by the owner.

3. The offence is admitted by the accused who has a record of 5 previous convictions. As it seemed from the prisoner's answers that he did not realise that his action was wrong and also upon certain information he was remanded to the jail for the observation of the District Surgeon. That officer has now given on oath his opinion that the prisoner is a harmless lunatic and has given his reasons.

Pending a reference to Government I have ordered that the insane prisoner should be detained in the Jail Hospital Behampur.

Dated Chatrapur 9th April 1895.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith the records in CC No 649 of 1894 on the file of the Sub-Magistrate Behampur town for the orders of Government under section 466 of the code of Criminal Procedure. The Submagistrate found the accused guilty under sections 379 and 75 I.P.C. and committed him to the Court of the Senior assistant Magistrate for enhanced punishment under section 349 C.P.C. The Senior assistant Magistrate sent the accused to the District Surgeon for medical observation and the latter granted a certificate that the accused is a harmless lunatic. A deposition was also taken from the District Surgeon.

Kept with previous Commitments.

2. I submit herewith the Medical history
Sheet of the prisoner prepared by the District Surgeon in original together with a copy of the Senior assistant Magistrate's letter of reference.

3. I beg to add that the Senior assst Magistrate reports that the accused has no relations to stand as sureties for him and that he cannot recommend his release on security.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

No. 1931/95

Read the following letter from the District Magistrate, Ganjam.

ORDER—dated 26th April 1895, No. 866

UNDER the provisions of Section 466, Criminal P. C., it is directed that criminal lunatic Lokkoju ^{Murthyjagann} ~~Murthyjagann~~ be sent to the Lunatic Asylum at Madras for safe custody and treatment; the usual periodical reports being made of the state of his mind.

2. The Superintendent of the District Jail at Beshampore will forward criminal lunatic Lokkoju Murthyjagann at once to his destination and intimate the despatch to the Superintendent of the Asylum by letter accompanied by all necessary papers.

3. There was no necessity to submit the entire record of the case. His attention is drawn to G.O. No. 37 dated 23.4.95 of 10.1.95.

Note:

25/4/95.

The man is said to be perfectly harmless—being subject to dementia. The local officer recommends the release on security. But the Senior ass't Mag. reports that the accused has no relatives to stand security for him & that he cannot recommend his release on security.

To the District Magistrate, Ganjam.
