GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Sir,

In submitting herewith judgment of the Taluk Magistrate, Tadpatra in Calendar Case No. 1 of 1895, on his file, for orders under Section 471 Criminal Procedure Code, I have the honor to state that one Kamsala Raveacharlu, of Velistindla Village, Puli-vendla Taluk, Maddur District, was tried in September, 1893, by the Taluk Magistrate, Tadpatra, for an offence under Sections 454 and 380 Indian Penal Code. As he was insane and consequently incapable of making his defence, he was sent to the District jail, Bellary, and subsequently to the Lunatic Asylum, Madras under the orders of Government (vide Government order 1169 dated 17.5.94 judicial⁽²⁾) Finally, on 28.2.95, he was sent here from the Lunatic Asylum, Madras, to stand his trial, as he was considered by the official visitors of the Asylum to be in a proper state of mind. The Deputy Magistrate proceeded with the enquiry, and finding that the accused committed the offence when he was in an unsound state of mind acquitted him on 13.3.95

Kamsala Ramacharu states that he can produce Security at Tadpatri where he had been for some time. I have inspected the man; he seems bright and intelligent, and while admitting that he has been non compos, considers himself, as he appears to be, entirely recovered and harmless. Under these circumstances I have the honor to recommend that he be released unconditionally.

3. The Medical History Sheet prepared by the Superintendent Lunatic Asylum, Madras, dated 20.2.95, is herewith submitted.

I have the honor to be,
Sir

the half yearly return of Criminal lunatics for the period ending 31 Decr. 1894.
Confined in the Madras L. Asylum. The report altho' due with post on the 1st Febry was not received till the 24th March.*

The cases reported since in the present return are briefly noted below: -

*No. 6. Inulau. charged with double murder he having stabbed two men in a fit of fury. He was acquitted as insane by the Sess. Judge of Madras. Confined in the Asylum under sec. 471 Cr.P.C. & in accordance with G.O. 727.12.78:2616.
Reported sane since July 1892. His case does not call for consideration yet.*

*No. 14. Krishna Rao: A sepoy belonging to the 30th Regiment. N. I.; guilty of committing heinous hurt on the body of his own child.
Confined under sec. 471 & in accordance with G.O. 10-3.83 & 717 Judl. He was*

No. 41 A. Rangadoo: was accused of murdering his infant daughter; confined in the asylum under § 27 of 6 Aug. 89, No. 1338 Jud.
From a letter in this § it appears that his brother & wife offered a security of Rs. 200 each.
He was reported as sane on the 20 Jan. 89;
but his release was refused in § 18-2-90:364.
He is sane since Jan. 92. In § 6-8-89 No.
1338 Jud. it was ^{observed} ~~stated~~ that the provisions of Sec. III, app. III to § 24 ap. 89 No. 726 will apply to this case. If so, being still under a ~~year of app.~~ he has to spend at least a year more of complete freedom from insanity before his removal to a jail. Hence no orders are now called for.

No 49 Chengalroyan: of Choolay, Madras: he was charged with house trespass & theft in a building in one case & house trespass & attempt at theft in a building in another case; confined under go 3 Nov. 91, no 2254 Judd. In the previous return he was reported as sane & Govt. thought best to keep him for another six months in the Asylum & that his release can be considered then if again reported sane. In compliance with these remarks, the official visitor's report in no. 1803/95 that this man has been rational & well behaved throughout 1894 & that he may be released, orders are elicited on this point.

No 53 Komaran. was convicted by the 1st. class mag. of Mambayur O.C., of house breaking & theft in a building after previous convictions & sentenced to 4 years & 2 months rigorous imprisonment on the 4th Feby 1891. He was reported to be of unsound mind & his transfer to the L. Asylum was directed in no. 29 Feby. 1892, no. 379 Judd. He is now reported sane for the first time; and in no. 1047 of 95 (which has been lying over till now for this half yearly return) the Capt. of the Asylum requests the sanction of Govt. for this man's transfer to a jail. In no. 1566 of 95 from the Sg. is a reminder in this, calling for early orders. His original sentence it will be seen expired by the fourth of this month. Orders are elicited on the Supt's letter.

See para 1 (b) of go 27

Note for go
This case being very urgent has been separately submitted for orders which has now been received.

No: 63 Himvika Chengau: murdered his wife & attempted to commit suicide. The Agent to the Govt. in Mysore ^{thought that} committed the prisoner of these offences but acquitted him as insane. The Govt. under sec. 471 ordered his confinement in the L. Asylum in go 27 6 May 1888, no. 1193 Judd. He is reported sane in this & in the previous return, in the one previous to that he was insane & no orders were called for now.

No. 71 Embichi Ali: charged with causing grievous hurt; confined in the L. Asylum under go 22 Jan. 1891, no. 139 Judd. He was reported sane in the 3 returns previous to the last but insane in the last return - being no. 86 in the return under cover of go 27 15.9.94 no. 2255. No orders are now required in this case.

No. 76. Aija Perigadoo: charged with murder but acquitted as being of unsound mind; confined in the Asylum under sec. 471 as ordered in go 27 5 Nov. 89 no. 1872. ^{He was} ~~As he is reported~~ in the last two returns but sane in the one previous. ~~insane for the first time no orders are yet called for~~ go orders are called for at present.

No 80 Masurai. Charged with murder, confined in accordance with go 27 12.8.90, no. 1341 Judd, under sec. 466. Reported sane for the first time in the return in go 27 27.4.92 no. 806 & placed upon his trial. He was found to have committed the act charged but was acquitted on the score of insanity. His further detention was ordered in go 1766 20.9.92.

under sec. 471. His case, it is subd., does not yet call for orders.

No. 83 Muthialgaoo. charged with murder; confined under G.O. 9 Jan'y 93 no. 11 Tudd, under sec. 471. Same in the three previous returns.

The question of release does not however ~~does~~ arise as he was only admitted into the Asylum on 21 Jan'y 1893.

No. 88 Chinuatoraitwau. Accused of voluntarily causing hurt. Though ^{he was} ~~he was~~ ^{recom-} mended for release, the Govt. declined to ^{accept the proposal} ~~admit~~ his confinement in the asylum in G.O. 10 May 93 no. 968 Tudd. Wherein it was pointed out that his case falls under clause III (as of appendix III to G.O. 24 April 89 no. 726, Tudd, so that he has yet to spend at least ^{2 1/2}/₈ years of complete freedom from insanity before release.

No. 94 Narasigaoo. charged with theft in a building; confined under sec. 471 as ordered in G.O. 10 Oct. 93 no. 2099 Tudd. He has been same since June 1893 & in G.O. 30 March 94, no. 787, Govt. called for the opinion of the visitors. They replied that he might be released but ~~the~~ M. objected simply turning ~~out~~ him out & in G.O. 2 June 1894 no. 1438, the Comr. of Police was asked whether there was any one to take care of him. He replied in the negative & in G.O. 27 July 94 no. 1847

half yearly return ending 31 Decr '93.

it was ordered that the man must remain in the Asylum. But as it was considered inexpedient to keep him in confinement for an indefinite period if he was capable of earning his own livelihood, the Govt. again called ~~referred~~ for a report on the subject in para (1) (2) of G.O. of 15 Sept. 94, no. 2255 Tudd (last half yearly return). On the report furnished by the S. G. (under cover of G.O. 20. 11. 94: 2805) the Govt. ^{Sanctioned the unconditional} finally released the man in G.O. 1st Feb'y, 1895 no. 2155 D.

No. 96 Subroya Chetti: guilty of murder, Confined under sec. 471, under G.O. 7 Nov. 93 no. 2292. Same also in the two previous returns. But as he was ^{only} admitted in the asylum on the 5th Decr. 93, he must remain there for some time longer.

No. 97 Surba Ramanna. acquitted by the Sess. Judge of Vizay^m of a charge of murder as he was of unsound mind at the time of committing the act. He was confined under sec. 471 as ordered in G.O. 8 Aug. 93 no. 1575 Tudd. As he was admitted into the asylum only on the 2nd Decr. 93 he has not been sufficiently long there to consider the question of his release.

No. 98 Kachimuethe alias Arumaya Valtu convicted of murder by the Sess. Judge of Salem whose sentence was, on appeal, confirmed by the High Court. But on the convict's appealing to go out for mercy, the sentence of death ^{passed on him} was remitted & his removal to the Madras Asylum was directed in G.O. of 14 Decr. 1893, n^o. 2614 Judd. As he was admitted only on the 24 Decr 93, he must ^{still} remain there & no orders are now called for.

N^o. 105 Paloli Serranthu. charged with attempt to commit suicide; confined under sec. 471 under G.O. of 26 Feby. 94 n^o. 492 Judd. As he was admitted on the 30 March 94, ~~no orders are now called for~~ he has been in the Asylum for only one year. Perhaps some relaxation of the rules may be made in this man's case as he is aged 48 yrs. ^(the record)

N^o. 107 Kayore Meerah guilty of altering the Queen's coin; confined under sec. 466 & under G.O. of 25 Apr. 94 n^o. 983 Judd. Insane in the last return. admitted 24 May 94; ~~no orders called for yet.~~

N^o. 108 Vattakattal Kunji Moidin Katti. charged with murder & voluntarily causing hurt with a dangerous weapon but acquitted as insane by the Sess. Judge of S. Malabar. Confined in the Asylum under G.O. of 16 Apr. 94 n^o. 917 Judd, under sec. 471. Admitted into the Asylum on the 25 May following. The D.M. while reporting his case recommended that under no circumstances should the prisoner be allowed to return to Malabar at any time. No orders are therefore called for.

N^o. 109 P. Abdulla Kunhi. Another moflah convict from Malabar accused of voluntarily causing hurt with a dangerous weapon; but ^{proceeding was stayed} acquitted on the medical officer's certifying the prisoner to be a lunatic suffering from mania; Confined under sec. 466 in obedience to G.O. of 25 April 94, n^o. 984, Judd. & arrived into the Asylum on the 30 May following. Same in the previous return; ^{sent there for} ~~no orders were called for~~ in para (1) of G.O. of 15 Sept. 94, n^o. 2255 J.D. that this man should be produced for trial before a magistrate as soon as possible.

 N^o. 114 Mudi Malappa. guilty of house-breaking by night & robbery armed with deadly weapon; Confined in the Asylum ^{under Act of 1871} on 11 Aug. 94 under G.O. of 31 July 94, n^o. 1861 Judd. In G.O. 1047/95 the Supt. of the Asylum requests the sanction ^{sent for} of this man also (vide note supra on n^o. 53 Komaran) being transferred to a jail. Orders are solicited.

N^o. 116 Kamsala Ramachari: charged with house breaking & theft in a building; confined in the Madras Asylum under sec. 466, under G.O. of 17 May 1894, n^o. 1169 Judd, from the 24 Aug. 1894. In G.O. 1766/95 the D.M. of Anantapur forwards the Taspatri Taluk mag's judgment of 13 March 1895 acquitting the man on the score of insanity & recommends that the lunatic may be released unconditionally. From the med. history sheet also forwarded it will be seen that he was sane since admission into the Asylum & that he is capable of taking care of himself & earning a livelihood. Orders are solicited in this case.

N^o 117 Alagiri: ^{culpable homicide not amounting to murder} charged with murder but acquitted by the Sess. Judge of S. Malabar on the ground of unsoundness of mind at the time of committing the act; Confined in the asylum under sec. 471 under go 13 July 94 n^o. 1720 Tudd. Admitted only on 10 Sept 94 & so it is too soon to raise the question of release.

N^o. 120 Vennarajavan: guilty of attempt to commit mischief by fire; Confined under sec. 471 under go 27 30 Aug. 94 n^o. 2096 Jud.

He has been in the asylum since 22 Sept 94. The Dist. Mag. in a letter of 8.8.94 states that he did not recommend the man's release on security.

N^o. 121 C.P. Kandan Kutti: charged with culpable homicide not amounting to murder; Confined under sec. 466, since 27 Sept. 94, as ordered in go 30 Aug. 94 n^o. 2112 Tudd. no order called for at present.

Female N^o. 9 Tithu Limma; she was ^{under sec. 317 IPC.} charged with having exposed her child with the intention of completely abandoning it; sent to the asylum under sec. 471 as ordered in go 29 May 89 n^o. 938, Tudd, mis. Before passing this order, Govt. referred the question of her release to the S.M. Malabar. According to that officer's report the lunatic's behaviour was very violent & excited and delivery of her relatives was unsafe. She is reported sane in the previous return & in this; so that she may perhaps remain there some time longer?

(9) It will be necessary to point out that he should be put upon his trial at once.
 18.4.95

(10) * This report did not specify the fact that she had become sane, & no orders were therefore passed directing that she should be put on her trial. It will now be necessary to draw the attention of the District Mag. to the fact in order that he may arrange for the disposal of the case.

18.4.95

Female N^o. 16 Soranam: a Sudra female about 28 years of age was accused of lust under sec. 323 IPC. & being of unsound mind she was ~~ordered~~ ^{sent} to the asylum under sec. 466, under go 8.6.94 n^o. 1396 Tudd. on a petition from her ^{paramour} keeper, the Govt. in go of 18 Decr. 94, n^o. 3116, Tudd, mis, called on the S.G. to report whether this lunatic is a fit subject for release, with or without security. On that officer's report that the woman was fit for release on security, the Govt. in go of 22 Jan. 1895 n^o. 146 Tudd, directed the delivery of the lunatic to Vythianatha Chier of Kumbakonam on his furnishing a security of Rs. 25.

The report although due with Gout on the 1st Febry. was not received till the 24th March. The following remarks are called for:—

(i) No 19 Tillapalle Kurmiak. As this man has been free from insanity for three years, it is time to transfer him to jail if the type of insanity with which he ^{was} affected ~~is~~ mania caused by the use of intoxicating drugs; but as Gout has no information on this point the Sg. will be requested to report on the matter.

(ii) It is observed that in the case of No. 20 Francis Rigley the last column of the return, vizt, "State of prisoner's mind" has not been filled up.

(iii) No 49 Chengalroyan of Choolay, Madras

The official visitors report in the last of the papers read above that this man has been rational & well-behaved throughout 1894 & recommend his release; the Govt. accepts this recommendation & directs that Chenzalrojan be forthwith discharged from the asylum.

(iv) No. 107 Nagore Meerah (the second). As he is now reported ^{to be} sane the Sg. should arrange for his being placed upon his trial.

(v) No. 109 Abulla Kunki: In G.O. of 15 Sept. 1894 No. 2255, Tudd, para (a) it was directed that this man should be put upon his trial as soon as possible. The D.M. of Malabar has just reported the result of the enquiry & separate orders will issue ~~thereon~~ in this case.

(vi) No. 116 Kamsala Ramaswami. The D.M. of Anantapur while submitting the Taspatin Taluk magistrate's report acquitting this man on the score of insanity recommends that he be released unconditionally as he is harmless & now perfectly sane. The Govt. accordingly sanctions his release without security.

(vii) No. 121 C.P. Kandam Kutti. As this recovered criminal lunatic was confined under sec. 466 Cr.P.C. he should be put upon his trial as soon as possible.

Sg's report that this lunatic was fit for release on security the Govt. in G.O. of 22.9.95, No. 146, Tudd, directed the delivery of woman to Vythiana the Aijer of Kumbakonam on his furnishing a security of Rs. 25. As the Sg's report, however, did not specify the fact that she had become sane, no orders were then passed directing that she should be put on her trial. The attention of the D.M. of Tanjore will now be drawn to the fact in order that he may arrange for the disposal of the case.
