CURRENT No 791

Proceedings of the Madras Government.

Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, Land Revenue, dated 12th February 1896, No. 729 Misc.-Confdl. No. 23, on the following letter from the Collector of Trichinopoly, dated 6th February 1896, Ref. (h) on Current No. 1413-Rev. of 1895.

With reference to Board's Proceedings dated 20th January 1896, No. 287 Misc.-Confdl. 6, relating to the Perambalur Defalcation case, and to para 6 of the G.O embodied therein, I have the honor to report that the matter of the purchase of notes to a large extent in the Perambalur Treasury by the Head Constable who was the Escort Officer, is still under enquiry by the Police. It is impossible to give an absolute opinion on the subject at present, but I may say that, so far as the enquiries have gone, it seems doubtful if the notes had any connection with the defalcation. The Head Constable and the late Police Inspector - since transferred to Madura - are indulging in mutual recriminations, and the Superintendent is still trying to find out how one or other of them came to be in possession of such large sums of money, and how the notes came to be brought in such a suspicious manner. It is not possible to form a definite opinion at present, but the Superintendent has informed me that he hopes soon to have the mystery unravelled.

2. I may, however, say that I consider that something should be done to the Head Constable, whatever may be the result of the present enquiry. The Head Constable stated that he counted the bags before they were put in the boxes. If so, there can be no doubt but that the money must have been abstracted while in transit by the connivance of the Police, -

this Head Constable being the Escort Officer. If-as the Super-intendent believes-the Head Constable was stating a falsehood when he deposed that he counted the bags, he should be ~~severely-dealt~~ severely dealt with for having told lies to the Government Officers who made the enquiries, his conduct being all the more reprehensible in that (on that supposition) by his lies he threw the Dy. Collector and Collector on a false scent and thereby helped to render impossible the detection of the case.
In other matters connected with the purchase of the notes the Head Constable has unquestionably told lies to Public Officers.
He has completed his service for pension, but the Inspector - General agrees with me that the question of pension cannot be entertained until the whole thing is thoroughly sifted.
