It is greatly regretted that the old order on this point was overloaded.
What mainly misled the office into adopting this course was the fact that it was followed in the case of W.
Gore, & no notice was taken of that.
India must have known of it as copies of all despatches to the S. & S. are sent to it.
It is, in fact, owing to this practice, that we have heard of W. Holmes's case.

Perhaps it is more civil to write & apologise instead of merely recording this. Orders are solicited.
