ORDER: No. 1100 dated 11 July 1899 mis.

His Excellency the Governor in Council regrets to have to point out to the Inspector-General of Police that no warning was received in the Special Branch of the widespread friction and ^{caus} unrest which culminated in the anti-Shanar riots in the Tinnevely District in the beginning of June.

It appears to His Excellency the Governor in Council almost inconceivable that the District Police should have been entirely ignorant of the disturbances looming ahead, and it is plainly to want of organisation, if not to more serious danger, that not a single report of the suspicions and dangers rumours which were current through out several taluks of the District should have been forwarded to any of the superior Police or Magisterial officers to be by them submitted for the information of Government in the Special Branch. The orders under which the Special Branch is constituted are very clear as to the information to be communicated to it, and it did reach the police, they were certainly of a nature to be reported not only in the Special Branch, but also to the Inspector-General of Police, and to the District Magistrate. In this instance the organisation of the Special Branch has signally failed in its functions of apprising Govt. on a matter of which it should have received the earliest intimation.

The Govt. has reason to believe that District Superintendents of Police and their Assistants do not realize the importance which ^{Govt} attaches to the Special Branch Department. [In a large Presidency like Madras, not paucity, but wealth of information should be forthcoming, if police officers laid themselves out to gather it.]

The Special attention of the Inspector-General of Police will be drawn to the unsatisfactory working of the Special Branch as it now exists and he will be requested to report at a very early date who is responsible for the faulty working of this Department in Tinnevely. Govt. trusts that he, in conjunction with the Dy. Inspectors-General, will be able to devise means to place the Special Branch Department and its agency for obtaining information, on a sounder footing in order to avoid in future the possibility of Govt. being left in ignorance [of matters of moment likely to occur.]
