No. 94. Proceedings of Government in the Revenue Department, dated 22nd January 1872, No. 133.

Submitting draft of revised rules for regulating the use of stamps in payment of the commission and fees chargeable in the Madras Small Cause Court.

Referred to the Judges of the Madras Court of Small Causes for report as to the date from which they would recommend the ordinary Court Fees' Stamp to be used, instead of the special stamp, in payment of the commission and fees chargeable in that Court.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
2nd February 1872.

(Signed) R. S. ELLIS,
Chief Secretary.

No. 95. From the Judges of the Madras Court of Small Causes, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 7th February 1872, No. 20.

With reference to the endorsement, dated 2nd February 1872, on the Proceedings of Government, dated 22nd January 1872, No. 133, we have the honour to state that the ordinary Court Fees' Stamp may be introduced in lieu of the special stamps now used in payment of the commission and fees chargeable in this Court from the 1st March next.

No. 96. ORDER THEREON, 26th February 1872, No. 233.

Ordered that the following Notification be published in the Fort St. George Gazette:—

NOTIFICATION.

Under the provisions of Section 27 of "The Court Fees' Act, 1870," the Governor in Council is pleased to prescribe the under-mentioned Rules, to take effect from and after the 1st April 1872, in supersession of the rules published in paragraph 2 of the Notification of the Judicial Department, at pages 496 and 497 of the Fort St. George Gazette for 1870, for regulating the use of stamps in payment of the commission and fees chargeable for the time being in the Madras Court of Small Causes.

I. The necessary stamps shall be provided by the parties liable to pay the commission and fees, and shall in respect of the institution of suits be affixed to the plaint in respect whereof such commission and fees are payable. The costs and fees payable in respect of warrants, subpoenas, second summonses, and all other processes whatsoever not being original summonses, in reference to which it has not been customary to file, as part of the record, any written or printed document or paper whereon the stamp could be affixed, shall be paid as follows:—viz., the party requiring such process to be issued shall produce an application in writing, and a stamp equal to the amount of costs and fees payable, shall be affixed to such application. Such application shall be entitled in the cause or matter to which it relates, and shall specify shortly the object thereof, and shall be filed in the particular office of the Court to which it relates.

II. In order that the terms of a document may not be defaced or obscured, the stamp affixed to it shall be of an amount corresponding, as nearly as practicable, with the amount of the stamp which such document requires. It shall be in the discretion of the Clerk of the Court to refuse to accept any document which shall bear an unnecessary number of stamps.

Stamps to be of the value specified.

No.	A.	Rs.	A.

0	2	6	0
0	3	7	0
0	4	8	0
0	5	9	0
1	0	10	0
2	0	20	0
3	0	30	0
4	0	40	0

III. Stamps of the values noted in the margin will be required for the purposes of the Court.

IV. Stamps will be sold by a licensed Stamp Vendor, or by the Assistants employed by him for that purpose in a stall or office situate within the premises of the Court, and by all other Vendors authorized to sell Court Fees' Stamps. The Stamp Vendor's Office on the premises of the Court shall be open daily for the sale of stamps (except on such days as the Court shall not be sitting) between the hours of 10 A.M. and 5 P.M.

V. A Register shall be kept in the Office of the Clerk of the Court by one of the clerks attached to that office, who shall be styled the Compromise Register Writer; and in this register shall be entered the particulars of cases compromised, and of cases in which costs have been remitted, either in whole or in part, by order of the Judges. It shall also be the duty of the Compromise Register Writer to make out the certificates for the payment of half and remitted costs. It shall be the duty of the Deputy Clerk of the Court to examine the certificates and compare them with the original records, and, if correct, to pass and initial the same for payment. The certificates, after being signed by the Clerk of the Court, will be paid by the Stamp Vendor of the Court, who will be provided by Government with a permanent advance fund for the purpose of making these refunds. The Stamp Vendor will from time to time replenish this fund by drawing from the Deputy Collector of Madras the amount expended, delivering to him the certificates he has discharged. The Deputy Collector will hold these certificates as his vouchers for the amount disbursed by him to the Stamp Vendor. The Clerk of the Court will also furnish to the Deputy Collector of Madras, at the close of each month, a memorandum showing the number of, and the amount for which, certificates have been issued during the month.

VI. It shall be the duty of the Manager or Head Officer of the Department in which applications are filed, with such aid as may be required under the immediate superintendence of the Clerk of the Court, to receive all documents and see that the blank space in them is not unnecessarily covered with stamps, and that stamps of the proper description and values are affixed. The Manager shall grant a receipt or memorandum for every application filed.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 26th February 1872.

VII. These rules do not apply to fees payable to Counsel and Attorneys of the High Court in cases certified, or to the costs of references to the High Court. Rules inapplicable to Counsel and Attorneys, and to costs of references to High Court.

2. The Government direct that, from and after the 1st April next, the ordinary Court Fees' Stamp shall be accepted, instead of the special stamp now used, in payment of the commission and fees chargeable in the Madras Court of Small Causes.

.. Judges of the Madras Court of Small Causes.

Ed. J. Wright.

Under the provisions of Section 48 of Act XVIII of 1869 I. A. P. Collector of Madras do hereby license P. Varadarajaiah to vend stamps in the Small Cause Court premises, subject to the following conditions.

1st That you shall undertake the work of discharging all the refund certificates granted by the Court in compromised suits, an advance fund of Rupees 500 being placed by Government at your disposal for this purpose, which fund you can replenish from time to time by drawing the sums expended from the Deputy Collector of Madras on presentation of the Court certificates.

2nd That you shall deposit a Government Security for Rupees 500 (endorsed in favor of the Collector of Madras for the time being) for the due keeping and return of the above advances on the termination of your license, and for the due performance of your work in connection with the Court records.

3rd. That should you allow any delay to occur in making these payments or fail to keep the prescribed accounts you shall forfeit your license and pay such penalty as the collector may consider fit to impose not exceeding Rupees 10 for each delay or neglect, which amount if not at once paid shall be recoverable from sums becoming due to you or from your security or according to law.

4th. That should you on the termination of your license fail to return the Advances Fund placed at your disposal or any portion thereof, the collector shall be at liberty to recover the same from your security.

In consideration of the work work of refund you have undertaken, the collector of Chudras binds himself not to allow any stamp vendors to establish themselves near the Court premises so as to interfere with your stamp sales.

Should the vendor in the Custom premises ever resign his license it will be offered to you on condition of your opening a branch of your business at the Custom House.

This license will be liable to be revoked should you fail to keep a sufficient stock of stamps general and Court Fees or in the case of any other failure which would render the license of an ordinary stamp vendor liable to forfeiture.

Sir,

With reference to para 2 of the Board's Proceedings No. 4553 of 31st October 1871, I have the honor to state that the Board have already submitted to Government with their Proceedings No. 6011 of 6th October 1870 a modified set of draft rules for carrying out the new system. It is only
No. V of these rules that requires a slight modification, and I herewith submit a revised draft of it. A draft of the license I propose to issue to the stamp vendor and of the agreement I propose to take from him is also submitted for approval.

2. In their order dated 10th November 1871, the Govt have sanctioned a permanent advance of Rs. 500 for the stamp vendor, and what I think, remains to be done before the introduction of the change is the publication of the draft rules by Government after approval and an intimation to the judges of the Small Cause Court regarding the date from which they are to admit the ordinary Court Fee Stamp.
