Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
29th January 1873.

No. 117. Read the following letter from the Judges of the Court of Small Causes, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 25th January 1873, No. 23:—

Mr. R. J. Harrison, one of the Bailiffs of this Court, having resigned his appointment in December last, we appointed in his place Mr. George Fowler, to whom we propose, with the sanction of Government, to give Rupees 75 out of Rupees 100, the salary attached to the office, and distribute the remaining Rupees 25 among such of the Native Bailiffs as are inadequately paid. In this Court there are three European Bailiffs on the receipt of Rupees 100 each per mensem, and fifteen Native Bailiffs whose maximum salary is Rupees 17-8-0 and the minimum Rupees 9 per mensem. The necessity for placing some of the Native Bailiffs on higher stipends was brought to the notice of Government, and we think it desirable, on public grounds, that their salaries should be increased. With this view, we beg to submit to Government a revised scale of salaries, and solicit that sanction may be accorded to it. This will involve no additional expense to the State.
