Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department.

21st March 1873.

No. 102. Read the following letter from the Magistrate of the Royapettah Police Court, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 17th March 1873, No. 39:—

I have received a communication from the District Engineer of the Presidency, reporting that the alteration and repairs to the new Police Court at Egmore have been completed, with the exception of some minor works. The building will be available for occupation by 1st April at latest, from which date I request the sanction of Government to transfer the Police Court of the Southern Division of Madras from Royapettah to the Pantheon Road, Egmore.

2. It is necessary to fix the date of transfer beforehand to enable summonses to be made returnable at the new Court, and to allow the change to be notified to the public.

No. 103. ORDER THEREON, 21st March 1873, No. 446.

Sanctioned.
