Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 5th April 1873.

No. 25. Read the following letter from the Government Pleader, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 27th March 1873, No. 58:—

I have the honour to bring to the notice of Government that there is no allowance for establishment attached to my office, and to urge the following reasons for asking that an allowance for the purpose may be sanctioned.

2. The work in my office requires that at least one confidential clerk or manager and a peon should be employed in connexion with that work alone. At present the pay of these servants has to come out of my small salary (Rupees 500 per mensem), and occasionally further payments have to be made for extra writers when work has to be done in a hurry. This may occur oftener hereafter, as the amount of work has increased considerably of late years. Both the Advocate-General and Clerk of the Crown and Crown Prosecutor, whose salaries are very much larger than mine, and the amount of work in whose offices certainly not more than that in mine, have large allowances for office establishments.

3. I would also submit that it is expedient that those servants who have access to papers relating to Government business should be in the immediate employment of Government, and so be bound by a feeling of fidelity to their employers, and, moreover, should be well paid, as they have many temptations to betray the trust reposed in them.

4. On the above grounds, I would respectfully request that a small allowance may be sanctioned for an establishment for the Government Pleader's Office. Rupees 60 would be sufficient.

No. 26. ORDER THEREON, 5th April 1873, No. 549.

The Governor in Council sanctions an office allowance of Rupees 60 monthly for establishment for the Government Pleader, Madras, as a temporary arrangement, subject to report at the end of one year.

To the Honble W. Riddell Chief Secy to Government

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government that there is no allowance for establishment attached to my Office & to urge the following reasons for asking that an allowance for the purpose may be sanctioned.

The work in my Office requires that at least one Confidential Clerk these servants has come out of my small salary (£500 per annum) & occasionally further payments have to be made for extra writers when work has to be done in a hurry.

This

This may occur often hereafter as the amount of work has increased considerably of late years. Both the Advocate General & Clerk of the Crown & Crown Prosecutor, whose salaries are very much larger than mine & the amount of work in whose offices certainly not more than that in mine, have large allowances for office establishments.

3 I would also submit that it is expedient that those servants who have access to papers relating to Government business should be in the immediate employment of Government & to be bound by a feeling of fidelity to their employers, & moreover should be well paid as they have many temptations to betray the trust reposed in them.

4 On the above grounds I would respectfully request that a small allowance may be sanctioned for an Establishment for the Government Pleader's Office. Rupees 60 would be sufficient.
